

In the interest of safety and the environment, household hazardous waste cannot be included with your regular waste. These items can cause fires, harm victims coming in contact, cause damage and also cause damage to machinery.

Many common household products contain chemicals that can be harmful to humans, animals, and the environment. When such products are no longer needed, they become household hazardous waste.

For more information on HHW please visit:
mmsb.nf.ca/hhw.asp

CNWM
PO Box 254, Norris Arm, NL
A0G 3M0 www.cnwmc.com

Central Newfoundland Waste Management

Accepting

Household Hazardous Waste

May 6, 2013

Household Hazardous Waste (HHW) Guide

- * Aerosol Cans
- * Adhesives
- * Antifreeze coolants
- * Chemicals
- * Cleaning products
- * Ethanol, Methanol
- * Fertilizers
- * Flea powder
- * Fluorescent light bulbs
- * Gasoline, fuel, glue
- * Bleach
- * Contact cement
- * Herbicides/fungicides
- * Kerosene, lighters with content, Butane
- * Medications
- * Nail polish/remover
- * Motor oil/Filters
- * Paint/Paint thinner
- * Batteries
- * Pool chemicals
- * Razors/straight blades

Regional Site

653 -2900

7 Transfer Stations

- * Buchans Junction 852-2283
- * Point Leamington 484-3728
- * NWI/Twillingate 693-4118
- * Fogo Island 422-2378
- * Gander Bay 689-6279
- * Indian Bay 691-9320
- * Terra Nova 422-2905
- * Propane
- * Rubbing alcohol
- * Rust remover
- * Sealants/Solvents
- * Stains/Varnishes
- * Mercury

Our Environment, Our Duty, Our Solution